THE SABBATH SCHOOL VISITOR

THE Visiter is Edited by the Rev. Asa Bullard, Secretary Mass. S. S. Society, and published at Boston, Monthly; each number containing 24 pages with a piece of Music, prepared for the work by Lowell Mason, Prof. of the Boston Academy of Music, and at least one engraving; and it comes at 50 cents a year in advance. The Society have found it necessary, in order to prevent losses, to adopt this rule, not to send the Visitor to any one, except Agents who become responsible, till the subscription is received.

This work is published for the purpose of aiding parents and teachers in the religious instruction of the young, and of interesting children and youth and also adults, in the study of the Bible.

The object of this article is to request Ministers, Superintendents and other friends of Sabbath Schools, to lend their influence in extending the circulation of this little work in their respective Societies, Schools and families. The SEVENTH volume commences with January next.

The subscriber is Agent for the Work and will receive subscriptions and deliver the numbers at Bangor, free of any expense of freightage, to the subscribers.

A little effort would very much increase the circulation of the Visitor and it is believed, greatly aid those who are laboring for the welfare of the young. Will not Superintendents, especially, use their influence the present month to introduce this periodical into their respective schools?

The subscriber is also Agent for all the Publications of the Mass. S. S. Society, and they can be had at No. 6, Smith's Block, Bangor, at the Society's prices. E. F. DUREN. 1m D18

MR. CALHOUN'S POSITION.

We are highly gratified to perceive that the name of Mr Calhoun does not appear among the yeas on the question to exclude the reporters from the floor of the Senate. It has already demonstrated that he is no "vassal" of Mr. Van Buren, and that, however his peculiar views on some subjects may have separated him from his former friends, and thrown him for a time into a false political position, there is no cordiality of feeling and intercourse between the great nullifier and those whom untoward circumstances have elevated to place and power in the country. We have no fear of finding him in union with Niles, Wright, Benton, and their companions, either to suppress investigation into the abuses of Government, or to dam up the channels of circulation by which the knowledge of them finds its way among the people. N. Y. Courier.

We have a single word to say on this matter. But in the first place we would note a fact which we believe from authority we rely on, in answer to the first sentence of the foregoing paragraph. Mr. Calhoun "does not appear among the yeas," on the division alluded to, nor does his name appear among the nays. A negative pregnant. Why does it not? Mr. Calhoun was in the Senate chamber, when the vote was taken: he was in his seat the moment before, and resumed it the moment after. But let that pass! The Courier says Mr. C. is "no vassal of Mr. Van Buren." And a few days since, in the house, Mr. Pickens, (Mr C's gnomon on the house floor,) took some pains to avow the same thing of himself. There is something, and there is nothing, in all this, as occasions may arise. Mr. Calhoun is not one of those who, (to reverse Milton's famous line,) think it

"Better to serve in hell, than reign in heaven." "Aut Cæsar aut nullus" is nearer the motto of his choice. And very true is it that, within a short time, his views, as indicated by his conduct, seem to have undergone, at least the change of concealment, if nothing more radical. He is "laying low," as they say in the far west, and "looking sharp." He does not like "that white heap, yonder," in the shape of certain U. States Bank arrangements, on the part of his new allies. In the main, then, we think the Courier right, in the above paragraph; although upon the points of how right, and how long to remain so, we must confess ourselves more sceptical than seems to be our cotemporary.

ABOLITIONISM AND FEDERALISM.

The union of Federalism and Abolitionism may now be considered as complete, if before there was any doubt about it, which could not be; and henceforth they are to be regarded as one in principle and object, as they have long been one secretly. The few democrats who have joined the anti-slavery party through pure and honest motives, will now see how vilely their confidence has been abused, and will separate themselves from the dark and ill-omened coalition. [Newport (N. H.) Argus and Spectator.

This annunciation of the consummation of the union between Abolitionism and Federalism is put forth, in consequence of Gen. Wilson's having replied like an honest man to the interrogatories propounded to him by the abolitionists of New-Hampshire. But what will such men as Judge Morton, Trask Woodbury, Ex-Editor Hallet, Alexander Everett, Bob Rantoul, Duncan of Ohio, Senator Morris, Senator-elect Tappan, and other "Democrats who have joined the Anti-Slavery party," say to the hint couched in the closing sentence of this pithy paragraph? The attempt to identify the Whig party, as such, with the Abolition party, as such, will never succeed with enough of the people of this country to do "the democratic party," (as they call themselves) the slightest good.

TEXAS.

Congress was still in session at Houston. A bill to establish a college with the public domain excited considerable discussion in the House. In the Senate, Mr. Wilson, from Harrisburgh, was expelled on the 26th, for the use of profane language in his place, and resisting the officers of the chamber. Preparations are still making for the effectual protection of the frontier, though the Indian difficulties appear to have subsided. [N. O. Courier.

The murderer Cook, from Mississippi, has been apprehended in Galveston, and is now confined at that place. [Id.

What a lamentable misfortune is it to this free and order-loving Republic of ours, that the new "sister-state" of Texas has seen fit to withdraw her application for admission to our Union! How "proud" of the alliance, even as certain honorable Senators told us we ought to be, should we, were such an alliance consummated, were we to be! One of the Senate of a "sister State," expelled from his seat for using profane language in his place, and resisting the officers of the Senate chamber! What noble, honest, honorable independence! Pity that the union so glorious as this would be, should not be consummated! Is it yet too late?

MURDER. We understand that a man by the name of Maley, an Irishman, living at Houlton was murdered in his own house on Monday night last. The facts as near as we can learn them are these. A noise was heard in the house, and suspicion was thus excited that something was wrong, when an attempt was made to enter the house, but admittance was refused. The neighbors were procured, and they broke in, and found the body of Maley in a bed room with a shocking manner. His wife, sister and two or three Irishmen were immediately arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the murder.

[illegible] "County Treasurer" says the "democrats [illegible] their bills." We shall [illegible] go to [illegible] and test the truth of this [illegible]

The Chicago Democrat gives an account of a [illegible] who, in trying a horse to [illegible] the [illegible] frightened, dragged him two miles, dashing his head entirely to pieces.

PHRENOLOGY. Mr. Bartlett, who has lately given a course of lectures on this interesting science, and acquitted himself much to the satisfaction of all those who attended them, though the number, we regret to say, was not so large as we should have been pleased to see in attendance, owing probably to the short notice which was given, visited the jail a few days since with several gentlemen, and examined the heads of a number of the prisoners. It will be seen by the following with what accuracy he has delineated their characters, by comparing his description with the character given them by the jailer. Mr. B. is to give a lecture on Monday evening, before the Mechanic Association, and we hope that he will be induced to give another course of lectures to the public, that those who have not yet heard him may have an opportunity.

1. The remarks of Mr. B. This person has large Destructiveness, Secretiveness, and Acquisitiveness. Would be energetic, crafty, and dishonest. As his Adhesiveness is small, his friendship would be merely in name, very selfish. As he has large reasoning faculties, he would be capable of managing where judgment was required. I must wonder at his being here, not because he is too honest, but because he is very crafty.

The remarks of Mr. Elder, the Jailer. This man was put in for stealing. Is a noted rogue has been up for stealing before, but was not convicted showed a good deal of judgment and tact at an his trial.

2. Has very large Secretiveness and Cautiousness would love deception when it was no particular advantage to him very hard to find out Has large mirthfulness and imitation would be very fond of making fun by representations. Has a good developement of the intellectual faculties, and should possess an active mind. Has large acquisitiveness, but would not be inclined to steal only for the gratification of secretiveness

Remarks of Mr. E. Cannot find this man out, and a clergyman who visits the prisoners, makes the same remark. Can't even find out his name He exhibits a good deal of talent in writing and conversation.

3d. Mr. B's remarks. Has very little conscientiousness and secretiveness, but very fair intellectual faculties, would have very little sense of justice, or tact for concealing crime if committed, would be very liable to be detected should think however, from the size of the higher organs, he would not be inclined very strongly to crime.

Mr. E's remarks. Was put in for stealing, is a noted thief, appears to have no sense of justice, is constantly stealing from his fellow-prisoners.

The Democrat editor complains that the proceedings of the City Council are not published. Why don't he publish them? A record is kept in a book which is open at all times to the inspection of the citizens, and the same privilege is extended to the "County Treasurer," as to all other editors, of copying those proceedings for the press. Publish the doings of the City Council then, Mr. Democrat, and don't again accuse others of suppressing information that you are guilty of suppressing yourself.

DEFENCE OF THE FRONTIER OF MAINE!

Extracts from the Report of Major Graham to Brigadier General Wool.

* * * * * * The position chosen by you in the vicinity of Moose river post office, affords every advantage requisite as a site for a military post, and is upon the direct line of communication between Quebec and the frontier of Maine, bring one hundred and eight miles from the former point, and fifteen from the latter. I would respectfully suggest to you that, should this point, or any other in its vicinity, be determined upon as a site for a military post, it would be important that the attention of the Government should be called to the necessity of improving the road between the forks of the Kennebec and the northern frontier line. The topographical features of the intervening country are such as to admit of the construction of an excellent road, notwithstanding which, the route at present existing frequently encounters inclination which cause a very great augmentation in the cost of transportation upon it. The soil is well adapted to the construction of a good road, and the work upon it should be preceded by a careful survey of location and specifications as to the mode of construction, with which the contractors should be required strictly to comply.

I would make the same suggestion in reference to the communications between Houlton and Calais, and also between the latter point and Bangor.

The sketch of Calais and its vicinity shows the advantages, as regards the military command, of all the positions which appear to be suitable as sites for posts or garrisons. The river St Croix is navigable for merchant-ships of the largest class up to this point, above which all navigation ceases.

When the system of sea coast defence, which has been digested and recommended by the board of engineers for fortifications shall be carried into effect, the security which will be afforded to Bangor, and the advantages it possesses as a commercial port, will combine to render it one of the most important depots for supplying the interior with arms, the munitions of war, provisions, &c. to be found on the coast.

Having been directed by you to make a topographical sketch of the several points offering advantages as sites for [illegible] I have the honor to submit the [illegible] accompanying drawing, exhibiting the same.

The [illegible] south side of the Penobscot, and the ground immediately below Dennett's Cove, upon the northern margin of the river, afford every advantage that could be desired for an establishment of this kind. The great abundance, good quality, and the low price of fuel, would always ensure the economical application of steam power to machinery for the construction and repairs of arms, and for all the various purposes for which it would be requisite in an establishment of this kind.

* * * * * *

By the orders of the War Department, we were excluded, in the course of our examinations, from entering any portion of the territory claimed by the State of Maine, and now in dispute between the Governments of the United States and Great Britain, as to the rights of sovereignty and jurisdiction under the treaty of 1783. The territory thus in dispute presents a frontier more than twice as extensive, upon the borders of Lower Canada and New Brunswick, as that which is acceded to by both nations under the terms of the treaty; and our examinations were restricted

1st. To that portion of the boundary upon the northwest, which is marked by the highlands lying adjacent to and immediately between the head waters of the Moose and Penobscot rivers, in Maine, and the waters of the Chaudiere river, in Lower Canada;

2d, To the northeast boundary, separating Maine from the Province of New Brunswick, which is marked by the river St. Croix, from its entrance into the sea to its source and thence by a due north line as far as Mars Hill, which is the point at which the dispute arises as to the commencement of the highlands alluded to in the treaty, as separating the waters which flow into the St. Lawrence from those which flow into the Atlantic.

In discussing the subject of military defences of this important and much exposed section of our country, it appears to me that the first object to be considered, and that which should receive the earliest attention of our Government, is the protection of its sea-coast defences, by the erection of the fortifications whose positions, after the most careful examinations, have been indicated by the board of engineers, and recommended in their several reports, now to be found in the archives of the War Department.

* * * *

It was with the view of selecting suitable positions for such establishments, that the reconnoissances were recently made upon the frontier of Maine under your direction, and I will now proceed to submit to you, respectfully, the following remarks upon the advantages they seem to me to combine in reference to that object.

1st In reference to that portion of our undisputed boundary, which is marked by the highlands which divide the waters of the Moose and Penobscot rivers in Maine, from the waters of the Chaudiere in Lower Canada, and constituting the northwest frontier of Maine.

This line begins at the northeast angle of the State of New Hampshire, in about latitude 45 deg. 20 min. north, and, occupying an elevated and undulating ridge of highlands, extends, by a sinuous direction, generally from north 35 to 40 deg east, for about seventy miles, when it reaches the lateral spur or ridge, dividing some of the head branches of the Penobscot from the sources of the Walloostook, a tributary to the St. Johns river, or rather a name which the St. John assumes near its source. From this point the proper location of the boundary, under the treaty of 1783, is in dispute between our Government and Great Britain.

* * * *

The position proposed for the principal military post is one mile and a half north of the point where the Kennebec road crosses Moose river. It is upon the eastern margin of the road, and occupies a commanding elevation between two small tributaries of Moose river, and will, when the ground shall be sufficiently cleared of its growth of timber, overlook the approaches for a sufficient distance in all directions.

It is from one fourth to three fourths of a mile north of the Custom House kept by Mr. Lowell, and is a remarkable healthy position, affording easy access to an abundant supply of pure fresh water, either from neighboring springs, or by means of wells.

A garrison established at this point, and properly defended by a fortification composed of earthen embankments, and aided by an advanced post, situated somewhere between Hilton's and the frontier line, to watch the approach of an enemy and prevent surprise, would, besides being useful as a permanent military station in time of peace in aiding the enforcement of our revenue laws, and our laws of neutrality, in cases of emergency, respecting our foreign neighbor, serve also as a point for concentrating our regular and militia forces in prompt and immediate opposition to any hostile army that should in time of war attempt to assail us from the direction of Quebec.

Then the position selected by you for the establishment of a depot of supplies at the forks of the Kennebec. There is a level piece of ground included between the two rivers, immediately above their junction and below the highlands to the north, of between thirty and forty acres sufficient to accommodate all the buildings that would be required for store houses, &c. There is an easy communication from this point to the interior of the country and the seaboard, by means of the road which occupies the valley of the Kennebec, passing through Skowhegan Norridgewock, Augusta, Hallowell, Gardiner, &c. and by lateral branches, to Bangor on the Penobscot, The resources of the interior and seaboard would be easily, therefore commanded in supplying this depot with the requisite provisions and munitions. It would be highly important that the road between the forks and Moose river, a distance of twenty-eight miles, should be improved under an appropriation by Congress, and under the direction of a Government officer possessing the requisite knowledge of the subject.

* * * * *

2d. In reference to that portion of our undisputed boundary which is marked by the St. Croix river from its mouth to its source, and thence by a due north line to Mars hill, where the dispute arises as to its farther progress.

In considering the subject before us, this portion of our frontier is rendered extremely interesting, in consequence of its proximity to the strong military garrison at St. Johns and Fredericton, situated upon the St. Johns river, in New Brunswick, and to Halifax, the great depot and arsenal from whence all offensive operations would be conducted against us.

This frontier presents a line of one hundred and sixty miles in extent, and is now entirely undefended except at a single point, by the garrison of Hancock barracks, at Houlton. The garrison of artillery [illegible] kept up at Eastport, was withdrawn [illegible] for the purpose of augmenting the forces in Florida. The position at Houlton seems to have been chosen with good judgment as a military post. It occupies a commanding eminence upon the [illegible] about [illegible] of our eastern boundary line, and about ten miles north [illegible] of Woodstock, on the St. Johns river, [illegible] with which it communicates by an excellent road, which forms the [illegible] military road communicating along the St. Johns valley, Madawaska river, Temiscouata lake, &c. between the military posts of New-Brunswick and Quebec, on the St. Lawrence.

There is also an excellent communication by means of the military road constructed under the Quartermaster General's Department, between Houlton and Bangor on the Penobscot, a distance of 117 miles, by which supplies of every kind are easily conveyed for the use of the garrison. This is one of the best constructed roads in our country, and should serve as a model to all our military communications of a similar nature. It was constructed under the immediate superintendence and direction of Lieutenant (now Major) Charles Thomas, of the Quartermaster general's department. All that is requisite in reference to it, is that a small appropriation should be annually made by Congress for repairs required to amend damages arising from the annual use and wear of the road. This would require but a small sum annually, whereas, if long neglected, neither this nor any other road can remain in proper order.

It is said, and I believe truly, that Woodstock has been selected and determined upon as a site for a British garrison. A glance at the map A. herewith submitted, will show at once the importance of this position in guarding the great military communication between the city of St. John, Fredericton, &c. and Lower Canada. Its importance in reference to any contemplated assault upon our own territory from that quarter is equally great, for its communication with one of the most thriving frontier settlements of Maine is direct, and by an excellent road. The value of Houlton to us, as a military position, becomes then evident, for to it we should look, for the means of checking any such hostile movement. It is also highly important that the garrison of this post should, as recommended by you, be augmented.

* * * * *

The establishment of an armory at Bangor would be an important measure in aid of the defences here contemplated One of the principal sea-coast defences projected by the board of Engineers, for this State, is for a position opposite Bucksport, near the mouth of the Penobscot River. This when completed, as it should be shortly, will insure that security to Bangor, which, with its other advantages, will render it one of the most eligible positions that could be selected as a great depot of arms and munitions of war

The latitudes and longitudes of the positions indicated in the list already submitted to you, were derived from astronomical observations made with care, and with good instruments.

MY FATHER'S HALF BUSHEL.

My Father's HALF BUSHEL comes oft to my mind,
And wakens deep feelings of various kind;
'Twas an honest half-bushel a noble half-bushel,
It held a half-bushel of thirty-two quarts!

When I think of that bushel my Father's half-bushel,
That dear old half-bushel so honest and true!
Then look at the bushels, our city half-bushels,
Little dandy-half-bushels, it makes one feel blue!

Oh! my Father's half-bushel that country half bushel,
Its like, or my Father's oh when shall I see?
'Twas a half-bushel, and he a bless'd man,
For he fill'd the half-bushel, and something threw free!

Alas! I've long search'd for their likeness in vain!
Scarce a man, or half-bushel, but what gives me pain,
So unlike to my Father's their measures, and measure,
My life is nigh robb'd of all peace and all pleasure!

Yet all the half-bushels, if mean, are not small;
I'm vex'd with the great ones the most, after all.
Oh, mark out the Ash-man's next time he shall call,
'Tis a monstrous half-bushel holds quarts sixty [illegible]
Do send the base rascal away from your door:

'Tis a fact I am stating, no slanders I utter,
But who can forbear, when cheated, to mutter?
In New York, a barrel (I pray you, don't laugh)
WON'T HOLD SO MUCH ASHES, AS 'TATERS, BY HALF!

Zounds! what are the lawyers, and what are the laws,
But bug-bears and phantoms, mere feathers or straws?
Unless half-bushels are all made as one,
Like Father's half-bushel, I say we're undone!

GENUINE BUFFALO OIL,

[illegible] HAIR! [illegible] HAIR!

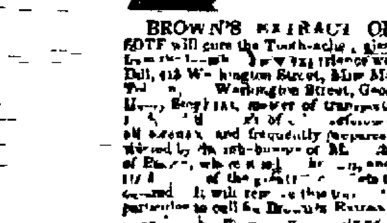

The greatest ornament to the human body is a splendid head of hair It has recently been discovered that the genuine Buffalo's Oil is a sovereign remedy for baldness, prevents the hair from coming off, promotes the growth, continues the luxuriance, and improves the beauty It is far superior to any other animal or vegetable oil, and in case of fever where the hair becomes dry and begins to fall, there is no application more effectual in restoring its beauty and rendering it in a healthy state

It is put up at a low price (37 1 2 cents) that all classes can have access to it. None genuine unless put up in flat bottles with HAIR OIL impressed in the glass Also, to prevent imposition, it will be signed by the Proprietor, Wm. Brown, 481 Washington, corner of Eliot Street, Boston.

EVAN'S
CAMOMILE AND APERIENT PILLS.
THE DIFFERENCE.

IT cannot be denied that whilst many medicines which are recommended to the public, have not even the negative merit of harmlessness, there are others which it would be great injustice indeed and suicidal prejudice to involve untried, in a common condemnation. And when a medicine comes endorsed with all the great names that have adorned the annals of the medical profession, and warranted by the seal and signature of long and uniform success, its proprietor makes no unreasonable demand upon the public confidence, when he claims for it a superior consideration.

The Camomile Preparation by Dr. Wm. Evans is undeniably entitled to this enviable distinction, for whilst no medical authority in existence condemns it, every medical practitioner that is acquainted with it, freely acknowledges its pre-eminent virtues and that the latter should do so in opposition to their personal interests, must be attributed either to their candor and love of truth, or to their unwillingness to fly in the face of all observation, and the testimony of thousands.

Dr. W Evans does not pretend that his Camomile Tonic Pills will cure all diseases. He frankly and conscientiously admits that they will not He lays no claim to the discovery of the "Philosopher's Stone," and wishes nobody to believe that he sells the "Elixir of Life," but he does say, and he does believe, and he can prove, that in debility and impaired constitution; in Nervous diseases of all kinds; in weakness of the digestive organs, in incipient consumptions, whether of the lungs or the liver, in the dreadful debility occasioned by the use of purgatives; in palsy, rheumatism, (more especially) in the sickness incident to mothers and to females of shattered nerves, in every case of delirium tremens, or that disease which is brought on by intemperance; in the wretched horrors of body and mind which accrue from occasional inebrity; loss of appetite, langor, melancholy pains in the head, limbs, or side; in corrupt sallow, and uncomely complexion caused by the bad state of the fluids in all these cases and in others mentioned in the bills of directions given with his medicines HE DOES SAY, that the Camomile Tonic Pills, interchanged occasionally with his Aperient Family Pills, (the best known) which are sold with them, will effect immediate relief; and if used but for a fair period of trial a perfect cure This much is placed beyond a doubt by daily testimonies which would be given on oath, and for this much Dr. W Evans can conscientiously request confidence. He therefore need only add that his Camomile Tonic Pills, together with his excellent Family Aperient Pills can be obtained wholesale or retail, at No. 7, Division street near Chatham square, N. York, and his authorized agents in town and country

Other and more conclusive demonstrations of the efficacy of Dr Evans' Camomile Preparation and Aperient Medicines are submitted by the following important and extraordinary cures effected by their highly medicinal qualities; all of which may be seen at Dr. Wm Evans' Medical Office, No 7, Division street. One or two of these he herewith respectfully gives to a discriminating public

Dr Wm. Evans Sir, be pleased to receive the thanks of one who has been a great sufferer for several years, for the great benefits she has received from the virtues of your inestimable Camomile Pills. She has suffered with pain and distress in the head, a lightness across the head, a lightness across the stomach, shortness of breath, and palpitation of the heart; exercise would almost overcome her, but since using your Camomile Tonic Pills her complaints are removed she is able to exercise without fatigue and she is happy to say, can enjoy life comfortably again

Newark, July 18, 1836 Dear Sir, for four years I have been so unwell that I was unable to attend to my business, and for the last 4 or 5 months was confined in my room, my complaints were rheumatism, pains in my stomach indigestion and loss of appetite, with continued pain and dizziness in my head, I used different kinds of medicines without effect, until I commenced taking your invaluable Camomile and Aperient Pills, their beneficial effects upon me astonish all who knew my situation In a few days I shall be at your office to express my gratitude to you in person In the mean time I subscribe myself your most ob't serv't.
B S JARVIS, 13 Centre st
Dr, Wm, Evans.

Extract of a letter from Jonas Snyder, Postmaster Knoxville. Pa. to Dr. Wm Evans Among several cases 'an elderly lady who had been 25 yrs afflicted with nervous hypochondria, debility &c that for the last 3 years she constantly received medical aid from a respectable physician, but the pressure and pain on her heart and breast and especially in her left side, remained immovable, attended at long intervals with weakness in her head and on her mind keeping her discouraged to undertake any thing In May she commenced using Dr W Evans' Camomile and Family Aperient Pills, according to the direction accompanying them A reaction took place, the pains and pressure in her body was removed, her mind became clear and strong; her spirits perfectly good, and up to this time is in all respects restored to health, which for the last 10 years she has not enjoyed "
Sept 2 1836 JONAS SNYDER.

ON LOW SPIRITS Low spirits is a certain state of the mind, accompanied by indigestion, wherein the greatest evils are apprehended upon the slightest grounds, and the worst consequences imagined Ancient writers supposed this disease to be confined to those particular regions of the abdomen technically called hypochondria, which are situated on the right or left side of that cavity, whence comes the name hypochondriasis

SYMPTOMS. The common corporeal symptoms are flatulency in the stomach or bowels, acrid eructations, costiveness, spasmodic pains, giddiness, dimness of sight, palpitations, and often an utter inability of fixing the attention upon any subject of importance, or engaging in any thing that demands vigor or courage Also languidness; the mind becomes irritable, thoughtful, desponding melancholy and dejected, accompanied with a total derangement of the nervous system. The mental feelings and peculiar train of ideas that haunt the imagination and overwhelm the judgment exhibit an infinite diversity The wisest and best of men are as open to this affliction as the weakest.

CAUSES A sedentary life of any kind, especially severe study, protracted to a late hour in the night and rarely relieved by social intercourse, or exercise, a dissolute habit, great excess in eating and drinking, the immoderate use of mercury violent purgatives, the suppression of some habitual discharge, or long continued eruption; relaxation or debility of one or more important organs within abdomen, is frequent cause

TREATMENT The principal objects of treatment are, to remove indigestion, to strengthen the body, and to eliven the spirits, which may be promoted by exercise, early hours, regular meals and pleasant conversation The bowels (if costive) being carefully regulated by the occasional use of a mild aperient We know nothing better calculated to obtain this end, than Dr. W Evans' Aperient Pills being mild and certain in their operation. The bowels being once cleansed, his inestimable Camomile Pills, (which are tonic, anodyne, & anti-spasmodic) are an infallible remedy, & without dispute have proved a great blessing to the numerous public.

Some physicians have recommended a free use of mercury but it should not be resorted to; as in many cases it will greatly aggravate symptoms.

THE most safe, effectual and economical remedy for diseases of the Human Constitution, that has ever been discovered.

These Pills are composed entirely of materials extracted from Medical Plants, and are warranted not to contain one particle of mercury, or any mineral substance Dr Kingley, the inventor of this valuable medicine, from his knowledge of the human system derived from a long and extensive practice, has arrived to the conclusion, that the great and primary cause of most diseases is a derangement in the functions of the liver; or in other words an increased or diminished secretion of the Bile

So well is this understood, that it is common for persons to say when they feel unwell that they are bilious, meaning that they have too much bile in the stomach. On the other hand, when the flow of bile is diminished, the process of digestion is imperfectly performed, the patient becomes weak and emaciated, because nourishment contained in the food taken into the stomach is not properly extracted, and the food is ejected in a crude state. Dr Kingley is confident that the famous Hygean Theory, so called, that "impurity of the blood is the cause of all diseases," is a great absurdity Every one who reflects upon the subject a moment, will perceive that impurity of the blood is a secondary, not a primary complaint the effect, and not the cause of the disease. When the functions of the liver are deranged and the flow of bile increased it is often taken up by the absorbent vessels and carried into the circulation, and becomes mingled with the blood as in Jaundice, when the patient shows it in his countenance Now this impurity of the blood is caused by an increased flow of the bile, and to remedy it you must correct the secretion of the liver and restore it to a healthy state.

Dr. Kingley has spent much time in experimenting with different vegetable medicines for diseases of the liver and now offers his Universal Family Pills as the best, most convenient and cheapest medicine that can be prepared for general use; and in offering them to the public he is actuated more by benevolent than pecuniary motives, as the price of the medicine will show.

Dr Kingley flatters himself that his long experimenting with vegetable medicines has enabled him to discover the true and only substitute answering all the purpose of mercurials, without any of their attendant evils One great quality of his family Pills is, that they have the alterative principle combined with their cathartic or operative quality so that they not only cleanse the stomach and bowels by purging, but they regulate the liver, change the morbid secretions, strengthen the digestive organs purify the blood, invigorate the circulation, and give tone and energy to the nervous system

They are mild and pleasant in their operation and almost immediate conviction of their utility from the first dose. They can be taken with safety by persons of any age and the feeble the infirm, the nervous, the delicate, are strengthened by their operation, because they clear the system of bad humors, quiet nervous irritabilities and restlessness from whatever source, and invariably produce sound sleep.

The Family Pills are an invariable remedy for jaundice, sick and nervous headache dyspepsia, costiveness, sickness of the stomach heart burn, all bilious complaints, fevers of all kinds, and if taken at the commencement, will invariably check their progress, and save the patient from a protracted and dangerous sickness They are invaluable in nervous and hypochondriacal affections, loss of appetite, and all [illegible] subject They operate as a mild and speedy purge, and are a safe and certain remedy for Worms in children.

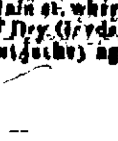

I might publish a small volume of certificates but consider it unnecessary, as the medicine will recommend itself to all who will make trial of it
JOHN KINGLEY.

These Pills are put up in neat boxes of two sizes; the small size contains 25 Pills, and the retail price is 25 cents, the large size contains 60 Pills, the price is 50 cents.
